

IMPERSONAL PASSIVE

|                                                                       |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1. Form 1: It + be + past participle + (that) + subject + verb |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------|

- |                                                                                                            |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>○ Example: "It is believed that the bug caused the crash."</li></ul> |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|

|                                                               |
|---------------------------------------------------------------|
| 2. Form 2: Subject + be + past participle + infinitive |
|---------------------------------------------------------------|

- |                                                                                                                    |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>○ Example: "The crash is believed to have been caused by the bug."</li></ul> |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|

1. Fill-in-the-Blanks

Complete the sentences using the correct form of the impersonal passive.

1. Form 1:
  - a. It _____ (think) that the server upgrade will be completed tomorrow.
  - b. It _____ (estimate) that over 1,000 users log in daily.
  - c. It _____ (report) that the system crashed due to a power failure.
2. Form 2:
  - a. The server _____ (believe) to have been hacked.
  - b. The outage _____ (say) to have lasted three hours.
  - c. The feature _____ (expect) to be released by the end of the month.

2. Sentence Transformation

Rewrite the sentences using both forms of the impersonal passive.

1. People say that the website has been updated.
  - Form 1:
  - Form 2:
2. They believe that the application crashed due to a bug.
  - Form 1:
  - Form 2:
3. It is thought that the new platform will improve performance.
  - Rewrite as Form 2:
4. Developers estimate that the patch fixed the issue.
  - Form 1:
  - Form 2:

3. Match the Sentence Forms

Match the active sentences to their passive counterparts.

| Active Sentence                                   | Passive Sentence (Form 1 or 2)                     |
|---------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------|
| Developers believe that the feature is delayed.   | It is believed that the feature is delayed.        |
| People estimate that the issue was fixed at 3 PM. | The issue is estimated to have been fixed at 3 PM. |
| They say that the servers are being replaced.     | The servers are said to be being replaced.         |

4. Write Your Own Sentences

Write two sentences using each form of the impersonal passive:

- Form 1:
  - Write a sentence about a rumored improvement in a new software release.
  - Write a sentence about the suspected cause of a network issue.
- Form 2:
  - Write a sentence about an estimated timeline for resolving a technical issue.
  - Write a sentence about a system feature expected to launch soon.

5. Real-World Application

You are working on a status report for your team. Write three sentences using impersonal passive structures to update your colleagues on:

- A suspected cause of a recent issue.
- An estimated timeline for the next system update.
- A rumored feature in the next release of a tool or application.

Example:

"It is believed that the outage was caused by an unauthorized access attempt. The system is expected to be fully operational by the end of the day. A new encryption tool is rumored to be included in the next software update."

6. Error Correction

The following sentences contain errors. Rewrite them correctly:

- It is said that the bug is being fixed.
- The server is thought to has been offline for hours.
- It is estimate that the update will take five minutes.
- The issue is reported to be fixing right now.