

IMPERSONAL PASSIVE

People consider that walking
under a ladder brings bad luck

1) It is considered that walking
under a ladder brings bad luck

2) Walking under a ladder is considered to bring bad luck

Nobody knows exactly how old he is, but:

People say that Henry is very old

1) It is said that Henry is very old

2) Henry is said to be very old

Usage

- 1) Not discussing our own opinion
- 2) Use with verbs of perception:

- | | |
|--------------|------------|
| - SAY | - FEEL |
| - REPORT | - EXPECT |
| - UNDERSTAND | - ESTIMATE |
| - THINK | - KNOW |
| - CONSIDER | - HOPE |
| - BELIEVE | - INFORM |

It is; said/believed/known/
Smb is; considered...

IT IS + V3 that clause.....

It is said that he is tall

Subject passive V3 to inf.....

The ring is said to cost ...

Subject passive V3 to be Ving.....

He is known to be
studying at university

Subject passive V3 to have V3.....

He is said to have lost his keys

IMPERSONAL PASSIVE

- It is said that
- It was said that
- It has been said that
- It had been said that

LET, ALLOW, MAKE

- LET; ALLOW - permission
- MAKE - to express that someone is forced to do something.

Active voice

!!! LET + object + bare infinitive

- The manager let us take a break

ALLOW + object + full infinitive

- The manager allowed us to take a break

MAKE + object + bare infinitive

- The master electrician made the apprentice do the job again.

Passive voice

BE ALLOWED TO

- We were allowed to take a break.

BE MADE TO

- The apprentice was made to do the job again by the master electrician.

Exercises

1) People thought that the world was flat

2) People believed that the planets and stars were gods

3) Some people expect that the world will end in a zombie apocalypse

4) Some people think that he was a best player

5) People believe that Halloween originated in the 9th century

6) Teachers consider that Jane is studying hard before exams

7) Neighbours believe that we have finished the renovation in our flat

LET, ALLOW, MAKE

1) I let you play in the evening

2) He lets me go home

3) My boss makes me do extra work

4) In my childhood my mother made me clean the room

5) In my childhood my mother made me clean the room

6) Jane allowed her daughter to stay up late

7) A stepmother made Cinderella sweep the floor

8) Parents never allowed Poppy to go to discos
