

Reported Speech

1. What is Reported Speech?

Reported Speech is used to communicate what someone else has said without quoting their exact words.

- Example:

Direct Speech: "I am studying."

Reported Speech: She said (that) she was studying.

2. Key Changes in Reported Speech:

- Tense Shifts:

When reporting, the tense usually moves one step back in time.

- Present → Past: "I like pizza." → She said she liked pizza.
- Past → Past Perfect: "I went home." → He said he had gone home.
- Future → Conditional: "I will call you." → She said she would call me.

- Pronoun Changes:

Adjust pronouns to match the perspective of the speaker and the reporter.

- "I am tired." → He said he was tired.

- Time and Place Expressions:

Time and place references often change to reflect the context.

- "Today" → "That day"
- "Here" → "There"
- "Tomorrow" → "The next day"

3. Common Verbs for Reporting Speech:

- Say: He said (that)...
- Tell: She told me (that)...
- Ask: For questions. He asked if I was coming.
